

Worksheet for Finding Partners

Directions: Use the following worksheet to develop a list of potential community partners. Fill in the names of possible partners for each category. Consult with friends, the chamber of commerce, or the phone book for entries.

Major businesses/industries in our community:

Major civic and professional organizations:

Colleges and universities:

Charitable groups that solicit in our community:

Religious groups:

Artistic organizations:

Hobby and collectors groups:

Worksheet For Finding Partners (continued)

Other groups in the community that provide childcare:

Organizations that provide services for senior citizens:

Newspapers that are printed or distributed in our community:

Radio and TV stations that reach our community:

To ensure that your list represents the diversity of your community, check to see that all segments of the community are represented.

Demographic Representation	Community Representation
Male Female Youth Adult Black White Asian Latino/Hispanic Native American Other	Faith-based groups Schools Youth organizations Government Civic clubs Service agencies Health services Public services (library, parks, etc.) Business and industry Media